HYNES ORDERS ARRESTS IN BIG FRAUD INQUIRY

Suspected Gamblers Jailed for Prizefight Betting; Attorney Cited to Disclose "Higher-Ups"

WITH the arrest last night of Jake Baumgarten and Eddie Murphy for alleged book-making on the prize-fights at Piedmont Pavilion and their appearance before the grand jury this morning, District Attorney Hynes further pressed his crusade against gambling interests and political frauds in Oakland when he obtained a citation directing Attorney George J. McDonough to appear in the Superior Court next Friday morning and show cause why he should not either answer certain pertinent questions put to him in the grand jury yesterday afternoon or be punished for contempt.

Attorney McDonough represented Edward C. Wiles, the first of the four indicted primary election officials to be convicted and sentenced to state prison, also James Higgins and Charles L. Gale, two others awaiting trial. He was asked pointedly what connection J. C. Rohan, Jack Woolley, Clayton Bush, Grant Gorman, George Agnew and others had in employing him to defend the indicted men, and in furnishing the $10,000 cash bail which was deposited for the release from custody of James Higgins.

Eddie Murphy and Jake Baumgarten were indicted by the grand jury shortly after noon today on one count each for violation of Section 337 of the Penal Code, which prohibits pool-selling. The violation may be classified as a misdemeanor or a felony. The penalty on conviction may be sentence of from thirty days to one year in the county jail, or of one year in state's prison. Judge Ogden fixed the bail at $1000 in each case. Pending the raising of the bail, both defendants were returned to the county jail.

REFUSAL TO ANSWER

Taking the attitude that any relations he might have with the men named were those of client and counsel, Attorney McDonough refused to answer any and all of the questions put to him. According to the transcript filed with the court today, he evaded giving any intimation of what dealings he had made in connection with the defense of Wiles, Higgins and Gale or the large amount of bail money.

Woolley, Rohan and Tony Mazzetti also appeared before the grand jury yesterday afternoon under subpoena. They assumed the position that inasmuch as their names had been mentioned in alleged connection with gambling interests and election corruption they would refuse to give any testimony that might be used against them.

Since the disclosures of the primary election frauds the names of Woolley, Rohan and Gorman have been mentioned as possible "higher-ups" in the matter.

When those who were lodged in the county jail.

CONCERNING BAIL

Going to the bottom of the proposition, District Attorney Hynes demanded of Attorney McDonough if he did not receive from Jack Woolley $3500 as part of the $10,000 cash bail for Higgins. If he had not received from George Agnew, manager of the Dunbar Club, $300, and other money from J. C. Rohan and Grant Gorman, this McDonough refused to disclose.

Foreman A. K. P. Harmon of the grand jury gave the witness every opportunity to place the desired information in the hands of the inquisitorial body, questioning him from every standpoint of the matter, but without avail.

Technically, Attorney McDonough was asked directly whether Woolley, Rohan or Gorman had retained him to represent Higgins, Gale or Wiles. He was then asked if any or all of them had put up portions of the bail money for Higgins and further if he had ever been attorney for either of the men mentioned.

He acted as attorney for Woolley in a small matter, once, was the only admission the witness made of any confidential connections with any of them.

COURSE OF INQUIRY

The line of questioning and the answers as set forth in the affidavit to show cause against Attorney McDonough were in general as follows:

Q. Who employed you to act as the attorney of Edward C. Wiles?

A. I avail myself of the privilege granted me by law to refuse to testify, upon the ground that it is a privileged communication between client and attorney.

Q. I refuse to answer.

Q. I will ask you if it is not a fact that Grant Gorman employed you to represent Edward C. Wiles in his trial upon falsely registering, and upon which charge he was convicted last week?

A. I refuse to answer.

Q. I will ask you if it is not a fact that Jack Rohan employed you to represent James Higgins, Charles L. Gale and Edward C. Wiles?

A. I refuse to answer.

Q. Mr. McDonough, you deposited $10,000 cash bail for the release of James Higgins from the county jail, did you not?

A. I did.

Q. You are the attorney of record for James Higgins?

A. I am.

Q. Who employed you to represent James Higgins?

A. I base my refusal to testify upon the grounds heretofore set forth.

Q. Who employed you as the attorney for Charles L. Gale?

A. I decline to testify upon the ground that it is a privileged communication between client and attorney.

Foreman A. K. P. Harmon:

Q. Mr. McDonough, will you please answer that question?

A. I refuse to answer.

Hynes—Isn't it a fact, Mr. McDonough, that Jack Woolley and Grant Gorman employed you to act as attorney for Charles L. Gale, James Higgins and Edward C. Wiles?

A. I refuse to answer.

Q. I will ask you if it is not a fact that Jack Woolley employed you to defend James Higgins?

A. I refuse to answer.

Q. I will ask you where you got that money?

A. I refuse to answer.

Q. I will ask you if it is not a fact that that money was given to you by "the Jack Woolley, Grant Gorman or Clayton Bush?"

Q. Or all or some of them?

A. I refuse to answer.

NOT BIND HIMSELF.

Hynes then asked McDonough if in the event of the court issuing an order for him to answer the questions propounded, he would be willing to bind himself to answer all questions along the same line that might be asked at a subsequent meeting.

A. I refuse to answer.

Q. You may ask me a number of questions along the same line and if your view of the law and mine should differ as to what privileged communications are, or if we should both differ from the court, it would be a hard matter for me at this time to bind myself to answer all questions if the court should compel me to answer those questions you have already asked me today. Therefore I will not so bind myself.

Q. Do you know George Agnew, who runs the Dunbar club at Eighth and Broadway?

A. I know George Agnew.

Q. I will ask you if George Agnew gave you $300 towards the bail money which was deposited by you to secure the release of James Higgins?

A. I refuse to answer.

Q. Did Jack Woolley give you $3500?

A. I refuse to answer.

Q. Are you the attorney for Grant Gorman or Jack Woolley?

A. I refuse to answer.

Q. Upon what grounds?

A. Upon statutory provisions to be found in our laws.

Q. What statutory provision?

A. I cannot recall.

Q. Were you ever the attorney for Jack Woolley?

A. I refuse to answer upon the ground that it is privileged.

Q. Upon what ground do you claim that the mere fact of employment is privileged, or was privileged, or could be privileged?

A. I refuse to answer.

PREVIOUS EMPLOYMENT.

A. Upon the ground that I was an attorney in a minor way, and therefore, being my client, and I his attorney, whatever communications, or whatever may have come to me through him or through any other source in connection with the case, would be confidential.

Gets Divorce After Alienation Charges

Mrs. Camille Gillingham, who was the center of a suit for $20,000 for alleged alienation of affections between her husband and Attorney William B. Schooner, today obtained an interlocutory decree of divorce from William B. Gillingham, a wealthy mining man. The suit brought by her husband against Schooner was dismissed some time ago and a divorce filed by Gillingham against his wife was also dismissed by the plaintiff prior to his wife's filing an action. Mrs. Gillingham was awarded $20 per month for her support and that of their two minor children, a boy and a girl. Mrs. Gillingham is at present residing in the University of California, where she is taking the special studies.

At the time Mrs. Gillingham filed her divorce, several months ago, her husband, in a statement, declared that he had been mistaken in his accusations against her when he sued Attorney Schooner and that, to the contrary, she is an estimable woman and above his reproach.

S. S. Admiral Dewey to Dock at Oakland

The latest steamer to ever pass an estuary drawbridge will dock at Oakland tomorrow, when the steamer Admiral Dewey, a 600-ton vessel, will touch at the Alameda wharf to unload 200 tons of flour and pick up a cargo of local freight. It will take on freight for northern points Saturday.

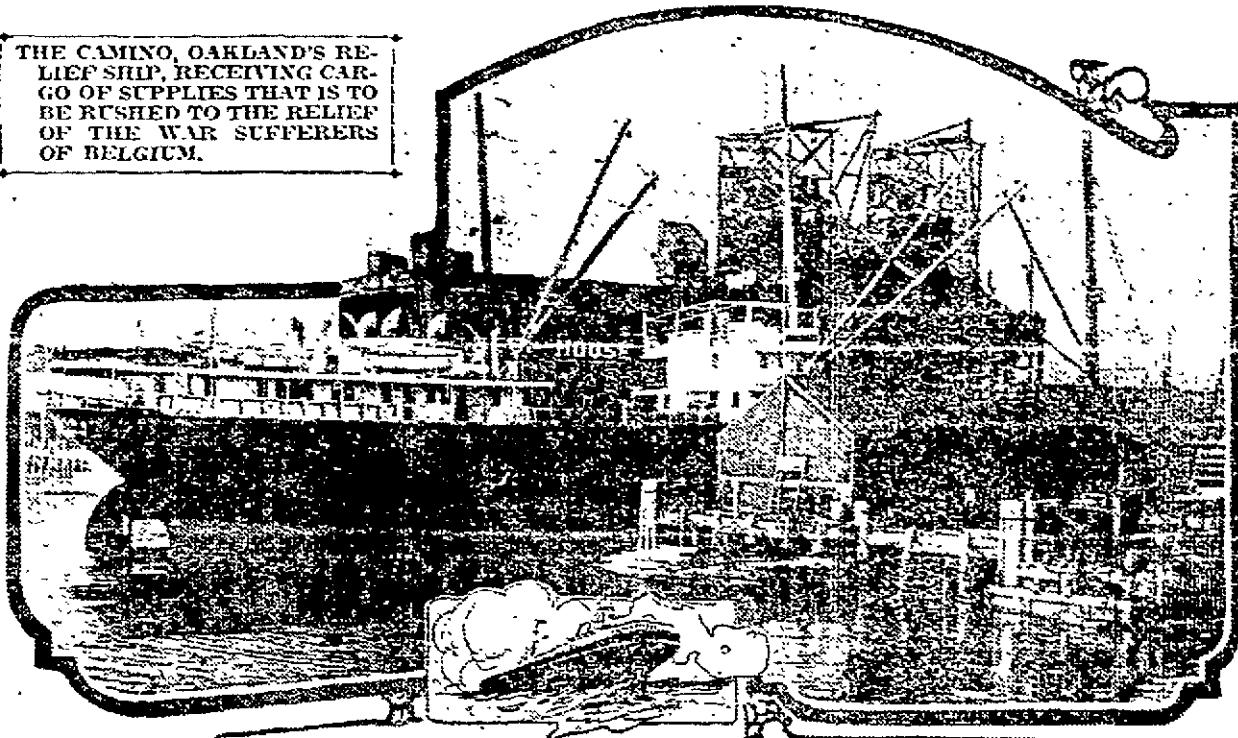

The Admiral Dewey will be the first ship of its size to pass the Webster street bridge and marks the opening up of inner harbor traffic by big vessels. It will make Oakland a regular port of call hereafter.

Chester Rowell Named Regent of University

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 25.—Chester Rowell, editor of the Fresno Republican, was today appointed a member of the board of regents of the University of California to fill the place made vacant by the death of Frederick W. Dohrmann of San Francisco, who recently died. Rowell graduated from the University of Michigan and later received a degree from the University of Heidelberg in Germany.

WARSHIPS TO KEEP ISLANDS NEUTRAL

VALPARAISO, Chile, Nov. 25.—In pursuance of its announced intention of enforcing strict neutrality the Chilean government today dispatched the destroyer Captain Merino, Tarpa and Captain O'Brien to the Juan Fernandez islands, Chilean possessions, 400 miles off the coast. The warships sailed under sealed orders.

APPEAL TO U. S.

LONDON, Nov. 25, 4:30 p. m.—Great Britain and France have appealed to the United States to exercise its good offices to compel Colombia to observe more strictly the requirements of neutrality. Otherwise the allies, it was announced in the House of Commons today, may be compelled in self-defense to take whatever measures they deem necessary for the protection of their interests.

Charles Roberts, under secretary of the colonial department, on behalf of the foreign office, made this announcement in the House of Commons. He said information in the possession of the government indicated that the governments of Colombia and Ecuador had failed in certain respects to observe the requirements of strict neutrality and that their failure to do so was likely to be detrimental to the interests of England.

The particular cause of complaint against Colombia has reference to a high power mine steamer.

WOULD REMOVE STAFF.

The British charge d'affaires endeavored repeatedly, said Roberts, to induce the government to remove the staff of Germans at the wireless station and in the post office.

Claim Torpedo Sunk Refugee Steamship

LONDON, Nov. 25, 1915 a. m.—The French steamer Admiral Ganteaume which was sunk October 26, while on her way from Falmouth to Harpe with a great throng of refugees aboard was the victim of a German torpedo, according to an Admiralty statement issued today. An examination, it is stated, revealed a fragment of the torpedo in a life boat. Though crowded with 200 refugees many of whom were women and children, only 40 lives were lost.

With the foregoing announcement the Admiralty furnished a picture of the torpedo fragment, adding that "this proves conclusively that the vessel was torpedoed by a German submarine."

It was previously thought that the Admiral Ganteaume had hit a mine. Most of the persons aboard were saved by the Channel steamer Queen.

Turks Defeat British Troops at Suez Canal

Camino at the Foot of Broadway; Hold Begins to Bulge

With Captain K. C. Ahlin of Berkeley on the bridge and crowds of Oakland's charitable workers watching the operation, the ship Camino was loaded today with Oakland's contribution to the relief of stricken Belgium.

Moored at the foot of Broadway, the big vessel received its heavy cargo of food, clothing and other supplies designed to relieve the famine of the war-ravaged nation, and a full crew, composed largely of local men, assisted in the work.

Officials of the Chamber of Commerce-Commercial Club Consolidated, representatives of the Belgian relief committee and prominent citizens were present when the truckloads of goods were placed in the vessel's hold.

Captain Ahlin, master of the relief ship, lives at 3001 Ellis street, Berkeley, and is one of the best known masters on the coast. He is to escort the passage of the Camino in rough and dangerous weather, but declares the vessel strong enough for any risk.

The Camino is a 3300-ton vessel with a depth of 33 feet. Her length is 246 and her beam 43 feet. Swayne & Hoyt are the owners.

Oakland Committee Hears Relief Report From Mrs. Regua

The relief committee formed in Oakland to assist the Belgians today heard the report of Mrs. Mark Regua, the chairman, in which she sketched briefly the history and work of the organization. Hereafter the work is to be continued, but without headquarters, accepting the headquarters where clothing is received, and

Toy-Laden Steamer Jason Docks Safely

DEVONPORT, Eng., via London, Nov. 25, 12:15 p. m.—The steamer Jason, laden with toys for children in the belligerent countries from children in the United States, arrived here today. The Jason left New York November 14.

A flotilla of British torpedo boats destroyed during the American campaign the Christmas ship and escorted her to the harbor. The steamer was delayed for some time on account of the dense fog. The Earl of Beauchamp and F. D. Acland, under secretary for foreign affairs, together with representatives of the London Board of Trade were on hand to meet the Jason.

SLAYS TWO, ENDS OWN LIFE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 25.—Becoming suddenly insane before breakfast this morning, W. J. Hill, 44 years old, a former guard at San Quentin prison, shot and killed his landlady, Mrs. L. S. Sproules, 48 years old, and her son-in-law, James H. Hoquard, a glassblower, 28 years old, and committed suicide.

Mrs. Hoquard, Mrs. Sproules' daughter, took refuge on the roof, where she was heard by passers-by as she loudly called for help. S. Fred Rust, a lodger in the house, was chased by Hill but managed to escape a shot fired at him by the latter and made his way to the street. He telephoned for the police.

Hill suddenly appeared at the breakfast hour with a gun and shot Hoquard. Mrs. Sproules fled, but was trapped in a closet and murdered. Then Hill is said to have turned his attention to Mrs. Hoquard, who escaped him, and to Rust, who also fled. In response to a call the police hurried to the scene. Officers Wallmeyer and Naylor and Corporal Healy responded to the first alarm and demanded admittance to the house.

When they broke in they found that Hill had killed himself.

SUDDENLY CRAZED, THEORY.

That Hill became suddenly insane is the only explanation that can be given. Hoquard was slain in his

Servian Victory Over Austrians Is Claimed

PARIS, Nov. 25, 1:15 p. m.—A Servian victory in the fighting with the Austrian invaders is reported in a dispatch today to the Havas Agency from Nish. It is said that the Austrian columns which on the night of November 23 crossed the Kolubara river in Northern Serbia, were put to rout by the Servians with large losses.

The battle continues, it is said, on a line from Lazarevatz to Monitza, where the attacks of the Servians caused the Austrians to fall back.

The Servians are said to have lost 5000 prisoners and 13 machine guns.

GEN. VILLA IS NEAR CAPITAL

Mob Riots Throughout City, Looting Gun Shops

Joint Occupation by the Factions Is Believed Likely

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 25.—General Zapata personally has entered Mexico City and has renounced the Aguas Calientes convention, according to a message from the capital given out today by the Carranza agency here.

It was stated also that General Blanco, with his troops, had reached Orizaba, midway between the capital and Vera Cruz.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—General Blanco left Mexico City at 3 a. m. yesterday, and the forces of Zapata immediately took possession of the city.

The dispatches, which were filed at noon yesterday, made no mention of any disturbance in the capital up to that hour.

Blanco, after repeated assurances to the diplomatic corps that he would not evacuate the city, withdrew and immediately the Zapata forces began their entry. These facts were reported today in official telegrams received by the state department.

Although communication with Mexico City is difficult, officials here were able to get in touch with their representatives in the capital and no disturbances have been officially reported. Blanco took away with him all the rolling stock that could be used in transporting troops. Most of the wires connecting the capital with the outside world have been cut.

VILLA NEAR CAPITAL.

General Villa's troops are reported a few miles north of Mexico City and officials here think a joint occupation of the capital with the Zapata forces is likely, as there is a complete understanding between the two factions.

The forces of Villa, according to official telegrams, are closing in on Tampico from San Luis Potosi and already have reached the oil fields in the vicinity of Tampico. The Villa advance guard has given assurances that the foreign oil interests will be protected.

Recent reports from state department agents who have been in touch with Zapata led officials here to believe the southern chief would maintain order in the city.

Later word came that the telegraph had been interrupted south of Juarez, thereby cutting off communication between Washington and American Consular Agents Canova at Aguas Calientes and George C. Carothers, who is with General Villa.

MOB RULING CITY.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 25.—Serious disorders occurred in the capital city last night, where a mob gathered in front of the National Palace. Later they marked in streets where arms and ammunition were kept, battered down the doors and sacked the places of the government. There was much shooting, but thus far, according to accounts, the casualties were few.

The police were powerless, as the few remaining to guard the city were stripped of their arms by the mob. Later in the evening the mob which had been constantly growing broke up into smaller parties and the robbery of stores and other establishments in various sections of the city is a lament.

At 5 p. m. all the streets in the city were stopped except the Red Cross.

OAKLAND ANNEXATION AMENDMENT IS CARRIED

Oakland amendment to the State Constitution, providing for annexation of outside territory by cities and for consolidation into city and county governments, has been carried. San Francisco amendment, as a substitute for which the Oakland act was put on the ballot by initiative, was defeated.

Accurate information of this victory won by the city of Oakland, in league with Sacramento, Stockton, Fresno, San Diego and San Jose, came this morning from the office of Secretary of State Jordan at the capital. His canvass of returns officially submitted gives this vote on the two amendments, with twenty small counties of the state yet to be reported:

No. 19, Oakland amendment—

Yes 245,383

No 228,296

Majority for 25,087

No. 21, San Francisco amendment—

Yes 252,922

No 208,281

Majority against 45,641

This is a distinct victory for Oakland. Some time ago, months before the election, San Francisco originated an amendment, which was put on the ballot by petition, providing for annexation of territory in one county by a city situated in another county. Los Angeles agreed to this measure through citizens.

But the measure to Alameda county was seen, and Oakland men submitted by initiative an alternative amendment prohibiting annexation across county lines. Los Angeles accepted this plan, and so did San Francisco, after other cities in the state had leagued with Oakland in its advocacy.

Since the final election the fate of the two amendments has been in doubt. These latest returns from Sacramento seem to indicate the complete victory of Oakland.

TRIBUNE IS COMMENDED BY UNIVERSITY REGENTS

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Office of the Secretary of the Regents, BERKELEY, Cal., November 24, 1914.

EDITOR TRIBUNE.—At the last meeting of the regents of the University of California I was instructed to convey to THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE the thanks voted by the board for THE TRIBUNE'S cordial support of No. 11, the alumni initiative measure proposing a land issue for permanent buildings at the university. The friendly attitude of THE TRIBUNE toward this great undertaking of the Alumni association, and its frequently repeated words of commendation for the measure, were of great avail in calling the public attention to the importance and merit of the proposal. Your aid toward the successful issue of an undertaking which means so much for the university is greatly appreciated.

V. H. HENDERSON, Secretary of the Regents.

U. S. STARTS INQUIRY INTO HANALEI WRECK

Captain Says Mate Steered Vessel on Reef; Death Toll May Reach 28

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 25.—A. Ormachea, fireman on the steamer Hanalei, whose home is at 1113 Broadway, put in an appearance at an early hour this morning and reported himself alive and well after an undertaking believed he was embarking the man's body and he had been positively identified by the secretary of the Fireman's Union.

In the list of dead published last night Ormachea's name loomed large. Paddy Flynn, secretary of the union, had positively identified him. Arrangements were made for the removal of his body to the undertaker's parlor of Barry & Scott. The undertaker's ambulance took away the remains last night and the embalmer was actually at work when the coroner hastily rang up on the telephone and informed him that he would have to bring back the corpse, as a mistake had been made in identity.

Ormachea did not go directly home after arriving in the city and that was the reason for the late discovery that he was in the land of the living. The body which had been identified as his remains at the morgue, and no one was permitted to remove it, was the body of a man who gave a clue to the correct name.

GIRL IS IDENTIFIED.

Miss Jean Scott, a manicurist, of 375 Ellis street, one of the first of the dead to be identified, is registered on the books at the coroner's office as Miss Alice Brown. According to her friends, she had been in the habit of using both names, but the correct name is said to be Brown.

Of the fifteen bodies taken to the morgue four remain. One, that belonged to Ormachea, still remains unidentified. The others are: Mrs. Nancy Woodward, colored, of 129 Hill street, Oakland; Lee Hayes, a colored cook, and J. Halpin, a winchman of the Hanalei's crew. It is understood that arrangements have been made for the removal of Mrs. Woodward's remains today.

All save two victims have been removed from the Emergency hospital. Those remaining in the main ward at the Central Emergency hospital are Sidney Aston, 35 East Twelfth street, Oakland, chief steward of the Hanalei, and George W. Harrison, a passenger, of Hydeville, whose mother lives at 2534 Grant street, Berkeley. These men were the worst sufferers by reason of their long exposure to the elements and their fight for life in the surging waters off Bolinas. They were brought here on the revenue cutter McCulloch and doctors worked over them for several hours while they were without clothes.

Both were too weak to be moved last night and Harrison had nothing to wear. He was one of those who decided to take a chance in the breakers without the encumbrance of clothing.

Harrison's mother came over from Berkeley to see him this morning and when she left the hospital it was with a paper inscribed with sizes in order that she might purchase suitable attire for the patient. Mrs. Aston, who is a lady, had her husband home, and at noon he was removed across the bay. Both he and Harrison were much better this morning and declared that in a few days they would be ready to go to work again.

The feasibility and advisability of placing a siren on Duxbury reef and an inquiry into the best method of providing life-savers and life-saving apparatus for that graveyard of Pacific coast vessels is a matter which is being considered today by investigating officials. Had there been any warning signal to tell of the nearness of the shore line the Hanalei would not have disappeared in the broken hull beneath the waves. It was not until the lookout cried "Breakers ahead!" and the doomed vessel was almost on the rocks that the crew gave her close proximity to the shore was realized. It was then too late to save her.

INQUIRIES UNDER WAY.

Inquests to be held on eighteen bodies, in two counties, will close a chapter in the tragic history of the ill-fated Hanalei, wrecked on the "ocean graveyard" at Duxbury reef, while federal officials, investigating the accident, are endeavoring to fix the exact facts in connection with the destruction of the big ship. Lack of today by the life savers declared by the life savers from San Francisco to be the only reason for any loss of life. Had there been proper gear there the experts say, every man, woman and child aboard the vessel could have been removed long before the breaking up of the ship.

Captain J. L. Nottor of the Point Pointa life saving station, whose boat picked up thirteen survivors from the wreck, is emphatic in this view. A sailing movement has already been started toward placing a life saving station, fully equipped with modern power enough to carry lines past the reef, at Bolinas or on the Duxbury cliffs. According to Captain Nottor the time consumed in reaching the wreck by the life savers spelled death to those who were rescued, as totaled this morning when count of the accident was taken, is as follows:

CAPTAIN TELLS CAUSE.

Captain Carey blames himself for the accident.

"I made a mistake," he declared. "For I should have gone seaward of the lightship and made sure. But if the second officer had held to the right I gave him we would have been safe."

Captain Carey was not on the bridge at the time of the accident, it being the watch of the second officer, John K. Sulzer, United States supervising inspector of steam vessels. He will initiate an investigation today to determine the responsibility for the wreck.

The testimony of every available passenger, officer and member of the crew will be retained in order to ascertain if it is true that Captain Carey left the care of the vessel, with

BRITISH FEAR RUSSIAN INVASION BY GERMANS

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Nov. 25, 4 p. m.—England is preparing rapidly to repel any possible invasion by Germany. Along the east and south coasts of England these preparations began some time ago, and are being pushed forward as speedily as possible. The work is chiefly in the hands of civilians.

Emergency committees of prominent citizens have been formed in several of the large towns. The principal measures already planned look to the safe withdrawal of women and children from the areas which may be threatened and also the removal of livestock and provisions which would be useful to an invading army. The destruction of grain and other commodities which cannot be replaced by imports is being planned. The destruction of bridges.

Rifle clubs are being organized. The war office has decided to re-equip these clubs, many of which are now drilling. Their badges will consist of a red armistice bearing the letters "G. R." Only those who are ineligible for service as regular soldiers or territorials may belong to such organizations. They are required to furnish their own equipment.

The city of Hull, according to the Daily Mail, has been divided into six districts. In each district is a committee of prominent men, which will cooperate with the police. Similar committees have been formed in Dept. Sandwich, Folkestone and several other towns. The mayors usually acting as chairmen. Bicyclists and automobilists were organized some time ago for their share of the work.

TEUTON PRAISES BRITISH TROOPS

Warns Germans Against Underestimating Enemy's Skill and Valor.

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, Nov. 25.—An earnest warning against underestimation of the British troops, such as has been customary with a certain section of the German press, is sent home by a well-known Berlin newspaperman, who is serving as first lieutenant with a regiment near Ypres. He writes: "The English infantry which opposed us there in the vicinity of Ypres must be characterized as troops of the first quality." He writes: "From the start it was noteworthy that with high energy the British troops defended their positions against our attacks. After being driven out they kept trying again and again, particularly by night attacks, to regain the lost ground. They were supported most effectively by their field artillery, which is as good as ours. The British had also brought up heavy naval guns in the vicinity of Ypres, and the English shells and shrapnel caused us considerable loss."

By Associated Press.

BORDEAUX, Nov. 24, via Paris, Nov. 25.—The Bar Association here presented to Madame Poincarre, wife of the president of France, a specially designed medal as a mark of admiration at the example she set by working as a nurse in a hospital organized by the Red Cross.

Madame Poincarre, who early in the war completed a course in nursing which qualified her for duty in the Red Cross, volunteered her services as soon as she arrived at Bordeaux, when the seat of government was moved to this city from Paris. The address accompanying the presentation says: "We all remember with sincere emotion the kind, unassuming nurse who took up her humble duties early each morning and whose perseverance and devotion were a constant inspiration to all who were under her care and deeply appreciated encouragement."

night clothing after he had arisen, following the hearing of shots fired by Hill, supposedly after Rust as the latter fled from the premises. Mrs. Hoquard, in a drowsy night gown and with her hair streaming, succeeded in making her way to the roof, where she was rescued fainting and hysterical after the police had discovered the tragedy within.

Rust heard Hill crying in heart-rending fashion and caught sight of him with his gun. As he fled he was fired on and he lost no time in getting in touch with the police. At that time he was ignorant that shooting had occurred. Officers responded and found the door locked and barred and were forced to smash it in. On reaching the inside they discovered the breakfast food still hot. Beside the door in the dining room lay Hill, a bullet wound in his head. Mrs. Sproles, a bullet shot, was lying dead in the closet where she had taken refuge. Upstairs, also shot in the head, the body of Hoquard was found. The officers then, directed by Rust, began a search for Mrs. Hoquard, believing that she, too, had been slain.

Mrs. Sproles was a widow and Hill and Rust were boarders. Rust was waiting for his breakfast and Hill had already been called to come down to his when he appeared with his gun.

TRIED TO BREAK INTO ROOM.

Rust, who is a glass blower and who worked with Hoquard, declares that he had just been called in response to the breakfast call when he heard a strange noise in the hallway and Hill attempted to break into his room.

"I went to the door and opened it partially. As I did so Hill jumped upon me. He declared, 'I don't think I can have a gun in my hand, but I don't believe it could have been loaded then. He snapped the trigger twice. I tried to get the gun away from him, and finally brushed past him and made my way to the stairs. I don't think any shots had been fired up to that time. I didn't hear any. I hurried to call the police. I only had on my trousers and ran out into the street bareheaded, hoping I could get help."

Mrs. Sproles had undoubtedly chased Mrs. Hoquard out of the house before bringing her to bay in the closet and slaying her.

The Hoquards had been married about two years. The house where the crime was committed was formerly occupied by Lieutenant of Police John O'Meara, who for a long time was Chief White's chief clerk.

By Associated Press.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 25.—Officers and the crew of the German cruiser Karlsruhe have sworn to sink their vessel rather than surrender it to Charles T. Torrance, a chemist of Baton Rouge, La., who was a passenger on the steamer Van Dyck, which fell a prize to the commerce destroyer, October 25. Torrance, who reached here last night from Para, Brazil, said he learned of the Germans' purpose from members of the crew. Torrance said he was landed at Para from the German steamer Asuncion, with passengers and crews of five vessels captured by the German warship late in October.

"We have made slight progress near Bery-au-Bac and in the Artois."

"At Bethuneourt, northwest of Verdun, a German attack has been repulsed. A succession of hostilities requested by the enemy has been refused."

"In the region of Pont-a-Mousson our artillery found it possible to bombard Arnville."

"Nothing has happened in the Vosges."

BROTHER SUES HOWARD GOULD FOR MERE $17.82

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—It must look like a hard winter to George J. Gould. He is suing his brother, Howard, for $17.82.
"I would be glad to get my money," he testified. "It is worth something to me just now."
But Mrs. Katherine Clemons Gould, divorced wife of Howard, was also present in court with an attorney. She was there for the purpose of proving that her brother-in-law really did not need this $17.82 to pay the milkman or get his laundry from the Chinaman, but had bought suit for it only that she might be defrauded out of her dower interest in her former husband's million dollar corner lot on Fifth avenue. The $17.82, it should be explained, is claimed as interest for one year on $54,000 which George Gould paid for Howard in the form of back taxes on the mansion. Mrs. Katherine Clemons Gould at the time of her divorce was granted a one-third interest in the income from this property, never less than $50,000 a year, making her share, more than $16,000.
She charges that Howard purposely allowed the taxes to lapse; that George then paid them as the result of a secret family arrangement and that he is now trying to bring the house up for forced sale with the real motive of making it appear to have passed out of Howard's possession.

PRINCIPAL CROPS SHOW DECREASE

The Decline of 7.1 Per Cent in Prices Are Shown by U. S. Report.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—A decrease of about 7.1 per cent in the level of prices paid American producers for the principal crops during October is noted by the Department of Agriculture today. Exclusive of cotton the decline was 6.1 per cent. For the past six years the price level has decreased during October 4.3 per cent.

The department attributes two causes for the unusual decline this year: first, the steady improvement in prospective yields during October; second, to the leveling downward resulting from a transition from a year of small production and high prices to a year of large production and lower prices, notably in case of corn and potatoes.

On November 1, the index figure of crop prices was about 3.4 years ago and 6.2 per cent higher than the average paid for the year ending September 15, to October 15, 1913. Prices paid to producers for wheat and corn decreased 6.8 per cent during the month from September 15 to October 15. On October 15, the average (weighted) price of meat animals was $7.14 per 100 pounds against $7.12 a year ago.

CROP ESTIMATES.
Although preliminary estimates of crop production this year indicate that the aggregate per acre yields of all crops will be about 5.4 per cent larger than last year's yield and about 2.2 per cent larger than their ten year average, they will still be smaller by nearly five per cent than the 1912 record large crop yields according to the department of agriculture today.

The total production of corn this year, it is estimated, will be about 10.5 per cent larger than that of last year, the wheat crop 18.5; oats 1.5 per cent; barley 10.3 per cent; buckwheat 23.1 per cent; potatoes 22.6 per cent; sweet potatoes 5.1 per cent smaller; hay 7 per cent larger; cotton between 8 and 9 per cent larger; tobacco about three per cent larger; apples about 75 per cent larger; sugar beets 9 per cent smaller; and flaxseed 10.5 per cent smaller.

AMERICANS PROTEST AT USE OF SAVAGE ALLIES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—A number of Americans in Munich have united in a protest to their countrymen here against the use by England and France of "Occidental and African savages to fight the battles in Europe," according to a wireless message from Berlin received today from the German Embassy. The message follows:

"The American Truth Society of Munich invites a protest from their compatriots at home against the conduct of England in calling to her aid Occidental and African savages to fight her battles in Europe. England has imported from India hordes of Gurkhas, Sikhs, Afghans and other Hindoo tribes, and France, emulating her example has brought over from Africa the barbarous Senegalese negroes and the Savage Turcos. Americans, can you contemplate without scorn and horror this introduction into Europe of thousands of heathen Africans and Asiatics to slaughter your Christian kinsmen?"

It bears the signatures of John L. Stoddard, Leslie B. Bissell, J. Miller Galt, Reverend Walter Ward Jennings and J. E. Seaver. Mrs. Charles Cashler, Maude Fay and Edith Walker.

DEPORTATION THREAT ENDS TONG FIGHTING

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 25.—Deportation was the whip held over the warring henchmen yesterday, as a result peace settled over local Chinatown and the long war between the Hop Sing and the Suer Sing ended last night. The district attorney and sheriff swept down on Chinatown during the day and arrested 120 members of the tong and their gunmen. Then they called all other Chinese into general assembly and warned them any future outbreak would mean deportation. The authorities refused to listen to the demands of the tong.

Shortly after the session the tong representatives got together and agreed to drop demands for indemnity and restitution until another crime shall have been committed. Wong Dong, peace delegate of the Hop Sing from San Francisco helped to arrange the pact. Prominent Portland attorneys acted on each side.

Acid Stomachs Are Dangerous

Common Sense Advice by a Distinguished Specialist.
"Acid" stomachs are dangerous because acid irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach, thus hindering and preventing the proper action of the stomach, and leading to protuberant nites of the cases of stomach trouble from which people suffer. Ordinary medicines and medical treatments are useless in such cases, for they leave the source of the trouble, the acid in the stomach, as dangerous as ever. The acid must be neutralized, and its formation prevented, and the best thing for this purpose is a teaspoonful of Bismarck-Brewer's "Little Water After Eating," which not only neutralizes the acid, but also prevents its fermentation from which acidity is developed. Foods which ordinarily cause distress may be eaten with impunity if the acid is followed with a little "Little Water After Eating," and should always be kept handy.

Dress Etiquette Has "Mere Man" Worring in Hayward

HAYWARD, Nov. 25.—Since the Hill and Valley Club directors gave out this week that they intend to have a gentlemen's evening, early in January, the menfolk are taking bets whether they will be permitted to wear tuxedos and full dress or will have to appear in every-day street garb. At a previous banquet given by the Hill and Valley Club, the women warned their men guests against starched fronts and other symbols of formality.

"Turn out as you came from work," was the order and none of the males had the temerity to wear anything more resplendent than his second best.

It is much nicer to be informal, the clubwomen hold, and then the ice of ceremony doesn't require so much breaking. In January's affair will be in the nature of a reception number of the men folk think that possibly they will have a chance to air full dress, but speculation will exist until the club makes known its dress etiquette.

About 8:30 in the evening Mrs. Marguire heard a noise at the back door as if someone were trying to insert a key in the lock. She switched on all the electric lights and saw a man run away from the door. At the same time neighbors arrived. They said they had seen a man slip down the stairs to the back door. The Marguireds failed to recover any traces of the burglar. This was the manner in which Judge Monroe balanced the accounts of E. B. Armstrong in the domestic relations court.

Armstrong was released recently on probation following a plea of guilty to a charge of having failed to provide for his children. He was brought in again for alleged violation of his probation. He promised when released not to touch a drop.

"It was just one drink, your honor," Armstrong said.

"It is just one year on the chain gang," Judge Monroe replied.

Keep Your Lungs Strong

This advice is doubly important with the knowledge that every three minutes some one in the United States succumbs to consumption and many refuse to realize they are afflicted until it is too late.

It is after colds or sickness, from overwork, confining duties or when general weakness exists that tubercular germs thrive because the resistive powers of the body are weakened.

Only with fresh air, sunshine and abundant rich blood can one hope to arrest their progress, and the concentrated fats in Scott's Emulsion furnish fuel for rich blood, and its rare nourishment helps strengthen the lungs while it builds up the forces.

If you work indoors, tire easily, feel languid or run-down Scott's Emulsion is the most strengthening food-medicine known and is free from alcohol or stupefying drugs. Avoid substitutes.

ILLUMINATED SHELLS SUCCESSFULLY TESTED

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Tests of a new illuminated shell, fired from big guns, were conducted last night at Fort Hancock on Sandy Hook, and officers expressed the opinion that the missile was a valuable addition to coast defense.

Of fifty shells fired only a few went wide of the targets and by means of the illuminating feature the gunners were able to correct their sighting on the next shots. Lighted balloons and lighted floating targets representing aeroplanes and war vessels, respectively, were fired upon from the fort. The new shell is similar to other shells, except that when it is fired a gas flame is ignited in the rear and this burns while the missile is flying through the air. This flame enables the gunner to follow its flight and see how far from the target it strikes.

The booming of the heavy guns startled many people near New York and New Jersey coasts, causing them to believe that warships of belligerent nations were engaged in battle.

MAKE YOUR OWN HAIR STAIN

This Home-Made Mixture Darkens Gray Hair and Makes It Soft and Glossy.

To a half pint of water add:

Bay Rum.....1 oz.
Barbo Compound.....a small box
Glycerine.....a small box

These are all simple ingredients that you can buy from any druggist at very little cost, and mix them yourself. Apply to the scalp once a day for two weeks, then once every other week until the mixture is used. A half pint should be enough to rid the head of dandruff and kill the dandruff germs. It stops the hair from falling out, relieves itching and scalp diseases.

Although it is not a dye, it acts upon the hair roots and will darken streaked, faded, gray hair in ten or fifteen days. It promotes the growth of the hair and makes harsh hair soft and glossy.

POMERANIAN IS IN SOCIETY

His Dignity in Hotel Foyer Proves Study in Behavior.

Some one checked a Pomeranian at the Oakland yesterday. Rather, left him with the hat boy while she lunched, and he sat in diminutive dignity at the door of the grill, where he created a polite sensation.

He was brown, and fluffy, and alert, with keen eyes that took in the passing show and missed nothing. Perfectly poised. Apparently, a dog accustomed to good society and its usages. A dog of the world, so to speak.

If one addressed him he rose politely and responded in an amiable manner. Very much pleased at the attention, but not inclined to leave his place, although there wasn't a sign of a leash to hold him. It would have been a breach of Pomeranian etiquette, no doubt, to leave his place.

He recalled Alice Hager's dog, who waits for her always at the door of the St. Francis grill while she lunched with friends. He is a doted and distinguished dog. Evidently it is all due to him whether he sits an hour among the hats and parasols or walks abroad. Life and people do not interest him. Very unlike the polite Pomeranian of Oakland who had a group of admiring strangers about him and thoroughly enjoyed the waiting until his mistress appeared and gathered him up with her muff.

RARE PLANTS ARRIVE FOR EXPOSITION BEDS

Enormous shipments of plants, trees and general horticultural exhibits almost daily are arriving at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, and others are on the way from various corners of the globe. Yesterday seven carloads of trees and rare shrubbery from Japan were shipped in the Palace of Liberal Arts, temporarily, where a force of U. S. customs inspectors and horticultural quarantine officers are engaged in giving the garden material a careful inspection.

From England and Holland yesterday arrived 25 tons of rare blossoming shrubs and bulbs, to be used in the landscape gardening effects in the course of the exposition. These included nine large crates of rare Himalayan rhododendrons from London, and 114 crates of bulbs from Holland. In the Palace of Horticulture, under the great dome, the eleven carloads of people plants, fruit trees and royal palms have been given permanent place.

From many parts of the world already there have arrived large consignments of exhibits of plants, to be used in creating the horticultural gardens.

ANNE—A good brush with long bristles is the best to use for the hair. Be sure you get the brush long enough so they will touch the scalp when brushing the hair. Care must be given a hair brush and comb if you wish to have healthy hair. They should be kept as clean as possible. The comb should have large teeth. Fine comb pulls the hair and breaks it off. After using a comb, dip it into hot water containing a few drops of ammonia. This is an excellent way of keeping the comb clean. Warm water and soap are the best to cleanse a hair brush. Add a few drops of ammonia to this also, for the ammonia cuts the grease and dirt in the brush. A brush and comb should be cleansed each day.

WIFE WOULD AID RIVAL; BLAMES MAN'S "CHARM"

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 24. — Miss Frances Kling will decide today whether she will accept the offer of Mrs. Anna M. Semple, who offered her home and protection when she was arrested with Semple for violating the rooming house ordinance.

The unusual offer from the wife came after court proceedings were finished and the case had been dismissed. Semple had told the court he had no intention of marrying the girl whom he had met in Red Bluff a month ago.

As the case was dismissed a slim, white-faced woman, with troubled dark eyes, stepped toward the young girl and held out a trembling hand. "I am his wife, my dear," she said in a low voice. "I have watched you—have looked into your heart. He has wronged you just as much as he has wronged me—more so in this case. Won't you come to me and let me befriend you till you can straighten out your affairs?"

The offer, Mrs. Semple declared later, was made with deepest sincerity, and she is now waiting the decision of Miss Kling, eager to take her home, to act as sister and protector, and to find the girl employment as soon as possible.

Miss Kling, however, accepted the offer only tentatively. With her eyes fastened on the face of the man who had asserted that he wanted to leave her, she explained that Semple had promised her help, and that she wanted it from him—she would give it. If not, she said, she would come to Mrs. Semple and stay with her until she can find work and friends.

"She isn't a bad girl. I know she isn't," said Mrs. Semple, whose final decree of divorce from Semple will not be effective until next March. "If she were I should never perhaps I should feel differently."

"But she's only a little inexperienced girl, who couldn't resist his charm—and oh, he knows so well how to capture a woman's heart."

"Miss Kling was too young to know better—I want to help her."

"Women are too ready to scorn the woman who is down, and I don't want to." Mrs. Semple concluded. "I've learned that one man can make a number of women suffer, and I want to start by her as all women should stand by each other, to help her out of trouble."

GIRL WANDERER IS IDENTIFIED BY MOTHER.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—The young woman who was found Monday night wandering around near the Buena Vista entrance to the Park in a dazed condition and sent to the Central Emergency hospital was identified yesterday as Margaret Ziehl, wife of R. H. Ziehl. The identification was made by the girl's mother, who took her home. The young wanderer was suffering from dementia, according to the hospital physicians.

ONE WIDOW LOSES AS THE OTHER IS WINNER.

ROBINSON, Nov. 23.—Mrs. Fannie Robinson of this city was declared by Superior Judge Seawell yesterday to be the one and only legal widow of the late Critchdon Robinson, known when the late Robinson was a big part of the city as the champion wing shot of the world. By the decision Mrs. Minnie, Harlan Robinson, who came to the city as a widow, loses all claim on the $20,000 estate left by the marksmen.

The fact that Robinson had two wives was not known even to his intimates until his death in 1912. It was only during his lifetime, and it was only during his death in January, 1912, that the development came as to his mixed marital history. He was married in this city to his first wife, Fannie, on December 4, 1872. There were seven children, with four now living. In 1884 it is claimed by Mrs. Robinson, she was deserted. Two years later the crack shot tried to get a divorce decree here on the ground of cruelty, but failed. The victory was attorney for the wife, who secured an order for $150 monthly

CHARITY HEAD MAKES ANSWER TO TRIBUNAL

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—The reply of John A. Kingsbury, commissioner of charities, to the presentation of the special grand jury which on October 25 severely criticized the administration of the charitable institutions on Blackwell's Island and recommended that the commission of charities be abolished, was submitted to Mayor Mitchell today.

The mayor, after reading the reply, assured the commissioner that it was satisfactory. He also wrote to Judge Norton of the court of general sessions, to whom the grand jury had referred its report, requesting it to be expunged from the record.

Replying to the criticisms of conditions at Blackwell's Island, the commissioner admitted that many of them had some foundation, but said that some of the evils had been corrected before the grand jury's report was handed up, and that others were caused by financial and other conditions altogether beyond his control.

SHORT OPERA SEASON OPENS.

The event also marked the opening of the social season here and there were many dinners and other entertainments, both before and after the opera.

Seventy-five lectures were given by Mrs. DeVeer, who carefully illustrated her addresses, which were attended by several thousand children. The course will be repeated in the early part of next year. The schedule will be announced in January.

It is Just Natural To Admire Babies

Our altruistic nature impels love for the young infant. And at the same time motherhood is over before us. To know what to do that will add to the physical comfort of expectant motherhood is a subject that has interested most women of all times. One of the things is an external abdominal application sold in most drug stores under the name of "Mother's Friend." We have known so many grandmothers, who in their younger days relied upon this remedy, and who recommended it to their own daughters that it certainly must be what its name indicates. Influence upon the muscles, cords, ligaments and tendons as it aims to afford relief from the strain and pain so often unnecessarily severe during the period of expectancy.

A little book mailed by Bradford Regulator Co., 365 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., refers to many things that women like to read about. It refers not only to the relief from muscle strain due to their expansion but also to nausea, morning sickness, caking of breasts and many other distresses.

SAYS DEACONS LIKE FIRELESS COOKERS

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 23.—Many of the deacons of our churches, particularly the Baptist, are nothing more than moral burners and fireless cookers, warm only because they happen to be already heated," said Dean Shaffer, Matthews of the University of Chicago at the 54th annual New Jersey Baptist convention here. He went on:

"The most serious thing faced by the church is that furnished by the deacons, many of whom are just moral parasites, hanging on for appearance's sake, and threatening the work of the ministry."

Other utterances by the dean were:

"The poorest church is usually the one about which you find a cordon of automobiles on Sunday," and "One of the most serious temptations faced by our ministers is that to be a man among men and women."

H. Ziehl. The identification was made by the girl's mother, who took her home. The young wanderer was suffering from dementia, according to the hospital physicians.

ONE WIDOW LOSES AS THE OTHER IS WINNER.

ROBINSON, Nov. 23.—Mrs. Fannie Robinson of this city was declared by Superior Judge Seawell yesterday to be the one and only legal widow of the late Critchdon Robinson, known when the late Robinson was a big part of the city as the champion wing shot of the world. By the decision Mrs. Minnie, Harlan Robinson, who came to the city as a widow, loses all claim on the $20,000 estate left by the marksmen.

The fact that Robinson had two wives was not known even to his intimates until his death in 1912. It was only during his lifetime, and it was only during his death in January, 1912, that the development came as to his mixed marital history. He was married in this city to his first wife, Fannie, on December 4, 1872. There were seven children, with four now living. In 1884 it is claimed by Mrs. Robinson, she was deserted. Two years later the crack shot tried to get a divorce decree here on the ground of cruelty, but failed. The victory was attorney for the wife, who secured an order for $150 monthly

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 24. — Miss Frances Kling will decide today whether she will accept the offer of Mrs. Anna M. Semple, who offered her home and protection when she was arrested with Semple for violating the rooming house ordinance.

The unusual offer from the wife came after court proceedings were finished and the case had been dismissed. Semple had told the court he had no intention of marrying the girl whom he had met in Red Bluff a month ago.

As the case was dismissed a slim, white-faced woman, with troubled dark eyes, stepped toward the young girl and held out a trembling hand. "I am his wife, my dear," she said in a low voice. "I have watched you—have looked into your heart. He has wronged you just as much as he has wronged me—more so in this case. Won't you come to me and let me befriend you till you can straighten out your affairs?"

The offer, Mrs. Semple declared later, was made with deepest sincerity, and she is now waiting the decision of Miss Kling, eager to take her home, to act as sister and protector, and to find the girl employment as soon as possible.

Miss Kling, however, accepted the offer only tentatively. With her eyes fastened on the face of the man who had asserted that he wanted to leave her, she explained that Semple had promised her help, and that she wanted it from him—she would give it. If not, she said, she would come to Mrs. Semple and stay with her until she can find work and friends.

"She isn't a bad girl. I know she isn't," said Mrs. Semple, whose final decree of divorce from Semple will not be effective until next March. "If she were I should never perhaps I should feel differently."

BASKETBALL COMING INTO GREAT FAVOR WITH FANS

The organization of an intercollegiate basketball league last year by THE TRIBUNE has borne fruit. Since the starting of this league great interest has been made in the development of the greatest of all indoor games. Basketball has been more or less played on the coast for many years, but not until last year was the sport recognized by Stanford and California. Since the forming of a league which takes in all the colleges of California, as well as the University of Nevada, with these institutions have adopted basketball as a minor sport and present intentions point to that game becoming very popular around the bay.

Now that the colleges themselves have taken full charge of the league so well started by THE TRIBUNE, the sport department of this paper has taken further steps toward the development of basketball here. The conducting of an exchange for the managers of independent amateur teams is the latest undertaking along that line. The amateur basketball department just as efficient. Our columns are open to the amateur basketball teams of the bay, and it is our special desire that every team in this section have a full schedule. Many managers have a number of advantages in this offer, and registrations are being made in daily.

Jeff Clark, the "Fighting Ghost," has been matched to meet the negro heavy weight of New Orleans. That's what he gets for training Langford.

MR. and MRS. H. E. HAASE, honeymooners, who will dance tonight at the newsboys' dinner at Piedmont pavilion.

By Nelson G. Welburn

The Golden Gate Park Tennis Club will inaugurate its annual mixed doubles tournament tomorrow with an entry list of twenty-five ambitious teams. Considerable interest is being taken in this event, as it usually produces high-class tennis. Prominent players from this side of the bay will participate. Handsome prizes will be awarded the winners.

Mr. A. C. Way, Los Angeles, California, writes an interesting article in this month's Pacific Coast Tennis Review, concerning a few "incidents" of the Davis Cup match, which the writer gladly herewith reproduces. It may help to pacify our petulant frame of mind. Tennis fans should read it closely, as there is a strong lesson involved in same. Note particularly Brooks' attitude.

It is a very strange coincidence that this year of grace 1914, which brought together in friendly competition on the tennis courts even of the most highly civilized countries in the world, in a game that is typical of the highest ideals of sport, in a game without a taint and played invariably by gentlemen in the highest meaning of the word, should also have witnessed even before the battle of rackets and ball were over the sterner contest of almost all of the same nations on the fields of Mars.

From among the seven competing nations in the Davis cup matches, only one—America—has kept thus far out of the game. And about what, forsooth! The many gestures indicative of his disapproval of decisions by umpires and his spreading his fingers in such a disagreeable and almost insulting manner, and the many times he has thrown his racket on the ground and stuffing his fingers in his ears like a nasty tempered boy, have been witnessed by all who have seen him. And about what, forsooth!

First, in very evident—even though silent—disagreement at least, with decisions on play rendered by such men as Larwood, Alexander, Clothier, Murray, and the best known names in the American tennis world, and second because of his very shortly had an opportunity when a referee of 20 years the third set after having lost the first two.

There certainly was no discourtesy to Brooks in applauding Williams for a game struggle to retain the cup for America. It was a forlorn hope, the odds were against him, and he was playing against a man who was a better player than he was.

Brooks' attitude was a very strange one. It was a very strange coincidence that this year of grace 1914, which brought together in friendly competition on the tennis courts even of the most highly civilized countries in the world, in a game that is typical of the highest ideals of sport, in a game without a taint and played invariably by gentlemen in the highest meaning of the word, should also have witnessed even before the battle of rackets and ball were over the sterner contest of almost all of the same nations on the fields of Mars.

FORD EMPLOYEES BUY HOMES WORTH MILLIONS

DETROIT, Nov. 25.—As a result of ten months' operation of the Ford profit-sharing plan, employees of the automobile king have purchased a total of 1,000 homes valued at $5,000,000, upon which they have made payments aggregating $1,200,000; have taken life insurance to the amount of about $2,500,000 and have saved an average of $45.76 per month each.

About 3,200 employees are under the profit-sharing plan. Since the plan went into effect the average gain per man in deposits has been 130 per cent; in homes owned 57 per cent.

TO ENTERTAIN GREETERS.
The Golden West Tours, Inc., will entertain the Greeters of San Francisco (Hotel Clerks' Association, Charter No. 4), on Sunday afternoon, November 29, on a personally conducted Key System trolley trip. The excursionists will stop at the Key Route Inn for luncheon, which will be provided by Manager Henry Barker. This is the first of a series of complimentary tours which will be offered the hotel men by the Golden West Tours, Inc., the purpose being to inform them of the many and varied opportunities for sight-seeing in the bay counties.

ELECTROCUTED IN HOME.
RIO VISTA, Nov. 25.—Paul Massingill, local manager of the Great Western Power Company, was electrocuted in his apartment in the Fraser building here Monday night, when a high power transmission wire fell on the company's telephone wire near Napa, while Massingill was using the telephone.

A Real Estate Man SAID:
"I have often wondered why some one didn't buy that piece of ground and subdivide it long ago. It is one of the best tracts in Oakland and ought to be the one best seller."
The reason it has been kept off the market is because the owners intended to subdivide it themselves. Tightness of money has now made it necessary for them to sacrifice and the price is certainly down to below cost. Mr. Home Buyer will find it a lot in this tract and not one more than it would be the operator and speculator. You may own your proportion of costs and save about 10 per cent. Others are paying not less than $100 up to $150 for lots not a bit more desirable. Yours will cost you $25 to $50. It is worth more than gold.

With the big show are also exhibits under the auspices of the California Pigeon Club and the Pacific Coast Rabbit Association, and the exhibit as a whole is declared the largest ever held in this county. Every variety of poultry product is shown in the big display. Several famous prize winners from the big farms at the south of the county are competing and large exhibits have also come from Hayward.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 25.—Silence in the schools of this city is being maintained by the European war in consistent with the purpose and spirit of education, declared Mrs. Fannie Fern Andrews, secretary of the American School Peace League, in addressing one of the sectional meetings of the State Teachers' Association here today. "What is going on abroad," she said, "should be presented in the schoolroom in such a manner as to give the pupils a proper interpretation of the whole dreadful story. The task is difficult, but the American teacher is equal to the emergency."

Sick headache is nearly always caused by disorders of the stomach. Correct them and the periodic attacks of sick headache will disappear. John Bishop of Reseda, Ohio, writes: "About a year ago I was troubled with indigestion and had sick headache that lasted for two or three days at a time. ## LEPER COLONY FOR STATE IS SUGGESTED

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 25.—A State leprosy colony for the isolation and care of lepers in California is the proposal which Dr. Donald H. Currie, secretary of the State Board of Health, is making to the coming Legislature. Dr. Currie, while in the Hawaiian Islands as a federal health officer, was convinced that a leper colony should be established in California. The necessity for a State leprosy colony is evidenced by the presence in this state of 20 known lepers. County health authorities, upon whom the duty of caring for these diseased people, have been unable to keep them in confinement and as a consequence several of them have returned about the state at will. Dr. Currie believes a leprosy colony should be located on one of the islands off the coast, probably on the southern point of the central part of Southern California or in the vicinity of Santa Barbara county.

GREAT CHINESE TRADE WAITS FOR AMERICANS

CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—China was pictured as the most important market for American manufacturers and merchants by Paul Lineberger, for six years circuit judge in the Philippines, who addressed the Chamber of Commerce here today. "The Chinese trade is worth fighting for," said Lineberger. "For China is the most stupendous market the world has ever known. It is a country of 400 million people, even under present undeveloped conditions, is simply staggering in its demand. American merchants and manufacturers must remember that we are united to China rather than separated from it by the Pacific Ocean."

The amount of cash business done in China is greater than that of any other country in the world and bankruptcy there is unknown. If a Chinese cannot settle his account New Year's Day he goes out and hangs himself.

HAYWARD THANKSGIVING REPLETE WITH FEATURES

To Sing at Benefit Feature of Program

MISS ANNA YOUNG.

A vaudeville entertainment will be given under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus in Sacred Heart hall, Fortieth and Grove streets, Friday evening, for the benefit of the deaf and dumb home. The bill has been carefully selected and every number will be done in the best possible manner. The chief attraction of the entertainment, however, will be the appearance of Miss Anna Young, a young singer who will also be a soloist. She is 17 years of age, but plays scores that would seem impossible to an ordinary student at that age. Richard Hammonds has also consented to assist the committee and his name appears on the program, which is significant to his large circle of friends of the order. The committee is working to make this the most successful of the show. The end is preparing an entertainment that will make big returns possible.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Massey, 535 Hillside avenue, were planning to celebrate Thanksgiving at the expense of a large turkey gobbler and its mate, both of which they had been feeding on the fat of the land for several weeks in their poultry yard. But the birds were no poultry of that kind in the Massey home. A miscreant last night cut a hole in the wire fence around the poultry yard and stole Mr. and Mrs. Gobblin. Massey valued the pair at $6 and has asked the police to investigate the Thanksgiving dinners of all persons who apparently have an excessive amount of turkey.

If a little more than half of these names prove sufficient names will have been filed to call an election. Zemansky has ten days in which to verify the additional names, but he expects to complete the work in less time. After the election commissioners had thrown out nearly 4,000 names from the first petition filed it left the sheriff's office with about 170 names short of the necessary number, which is 7,500.
